02.1 Description

Having a vision of who you are and what you want is key to success in life. We must understand what kind of leaders we are and/or are capable of being, how to work in a team, how to communicate our ideas in a multicultural environment and what ethical practices and values to consider when making decisions.

Soft Skills are as important as technical skills and that is the reason behind the "Professional Development" course is intended to understand models, methods and tools that can be implemented in a company to take advantage of intellectual capital. The objective of the program is to raise awareness and determine that students begin to develop the soft skills necessary to lead people and teams, and to lead successfully throughout their career.

02.2 Relevant Professional Applications

The set of learning received by the student is key to the performance of leadership and people management.

09 Code of Academic Conduct

The section 27.2 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights stipulates that everyone has the right to the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he is the author.

Thus, the moral and patrimonial rights of the authors of literary, musical, artistic, scientific and academic creations, whether they have been published or not, are protected by means of different national and international regulations. In the case of Spain, the Legislative Royal Decree 1/1996, of April the 12th, approved the consolidated version of the Law of Intellectual Property, regularizing, clarifying and harmonizing the legal provisions for the time being in force on this matter.

In this respect, special attention must be given to previously obtaining the corresponding authorization from the owner of the copyrights of any material, particularly before its distribution to the students and by means of the virtual campus. EAE Barcelona takes no responsibility for the non-compliance with this rule on the part of the users, either members of the teaching community or students.

The following materials that can be duplicated without the requirement of previous authorization:

- Laws and regulations.
- Court decisions.
- Acts, agreements, deliberations and decisions from public bodies.
- Any material distributed under the Creative Commons license, whenever its author and credits are mentioned.
- Any material published under the ISBN of EAE Barcelona or EAE Madrid.
- Any material, whose rights belong to EAE Barcelona or EAE Madrid.
- Any work that is in the public domain.

Furthermore, the quotation right is the inclusion of extracts from protected documents or materials, in this particular case, elaborated by the members of the teaching community- with the exception of textbooks and university handbooks- when such extracts are used to accompany educational activities.

The excerpts that can be used on the basis of the quotation right must fulfil the following requirements

- They must be previously published works.
- The source and author must be mentioned, whenever it is possible.
- They must deal exclusively with the teaching field.
- The inclusion of the excerpt must necessarily come with an analysis or explanation of it.

Concerning the material elaborated by the professors, in case it has been published previously, the agreements with the magazine or publication where it appeared must be considered.

As is apparent from the preceding paragraphs, plagiarism is a fraudulent activity that may result in serious sanctions, both of academic and legal nature. Academic honesty is one of the pillars on which the School's commitment to education is based, and the members of its teaching community are particularly conscious and prepared to perceive this kind of actions. Keeping in mind the difficulty that arises when trying to conceptualize plagiarism, it has been considered appropriate to delimitate clearly its contents and significance in these regulations and policies.

Plagiarism is understood as the appropriation of someone else's works, pretending that they are one's own; that is to say, without explicitly confirming its source. Plagiarism can consist on the complete or partial unauthorized copy of someone else's work, or the presentation of a copy as an original own work, impersonating the true author. Some examples of plagiarism are:

- Presenting someone else's work as one's own, regardless of whether the copy is complete or partial.
- Paraphrasing a text using different words, with small changes in the language, without quoting the source in order to feign.
- Purchasing or obtaining a work and presenting it as one's own.
- Using someone else's ideas or sentences as the basis to write a work without quoting its author.

In line with the section 10 of the Academic Code of Conduct of Students of EAE Barcelona, without prejudice to the academic sanctions resulting from its application, the Academic Commission will promote the pertinent legal actions if the plagiarism violates the applicable regulation in matters of intellectual property.
